The English Teaching and Research Association (ETRA), Taiwan

Since the World Health Organization (WHO) announced a global pandemic of Coronavirus disease (COVID-19) on March 11th, 2020, how has English and Literature education been transformed and evolved?

The 39th International Conference on Language Teaching and Learning will be held from July 15 to July 16, 2022, at Fu-Jen Catholic University, New Taipei City, Taiwan.

This conference aims to encourage boundary crossing dialogues among English and Literature educators, exploring challenges and possibilities for teaching and learning. We invite researchers and practitioners to share innovations in English and Literature Education, particularly in relation to technology, research methodology, curriculum design, and global communication. The fluidity of inter-disciplinary borders has increased, as we seek answers to questions we may have never envisaged or explored before.

For The 39th International Conference on Language Teaching and Learning, topics may include, but are not limited to, the following:

(I) English Language Education
-- Bilingual Education
-- Blended Learning and Mobile Learning
-- Content and Language Integrated Learning (CLIL)
-- Digital Technologies in Teaching/Learning English Language and Literature
-- English for Specific Purposes (ESP)
-- English as a Medium of Instruction (EMI)
-- Games and AI for Language Teaching and Learning
-- Language Assessment
-- Language and New Media
-- Language Policy
-- Multiliteracies and Digital Literacies
-- Technology in Teaching Literature and Culture
-- The Use of Corpora in English Teaching and Learning
-- Psychology of Language Learning

(II) Intercultural Communication, World Englishes and Identity
-- Cross-Cultural Communication and World Englishes
-- Myth of Standardization
-- Intercultural Communication/Teaching/Learning
-- Language and Social-Cultural Issues
-- Language Learner Identity
-- Literature Education Across Disciplines

(III) Translation
-- Translation Studies, Issues and Scandals
-- Translation Technology in Language and Literature Education

The conference invites abstracts of no more than 300 words in English for double-blind peer-reviews.

◆ Format:
1). Title of the paper
2). A 50-word short abstract (for publication in the conference program)
